QUALIFICATIONS FOR TAX EXEMPTION

To qualify for the City of Hapeville exemption, you must be a resident of Hapeville and have the Fulton County Homestead Exemption.

The City of Hapeville offers three exemptions; age, veteran and 100% disabled.

Residents can only have one city exemption along with the Fulton County Homestead exemption.

City of Hapeville exemptions are not automatic and be applied for and supported by official documentation.

Age exemption requires a valid, unexpired, government issued id. Veteran status requires a DD24 separation form. Disability exemption requires official documentation from the federal government or state of Georgia.

GA Drivers License or Identification Card # of person seeking exemption: _____ (attach copy)

Requested exemption _____

Note: This exemption will not take effect until the application has been verified and approved by the Tax Clerk. The City has up to 30 days to process your request for exemption. All exemption applications are due no later than June 30th of the upcoming tax year. The exemption becomes effective on the next tax billing cycle. Exemptions are not retroactive. I am aware if denied, I have the right to file an amended application, or to appeal the Tax Administrator's decision to the City Manager within a ten-day period after the mailing date of the Tax Clerk's notification. Failure to respond to the City's request for information may result in loss of eligibility for the exemption for current tax billing year.
